

The Judicial Review Process Explained

Judicial Review is the process by which individuals can challenge the decisions of public bodies if it is believed that they have not made these decisions lawfully

Understanding the Judicial Review process is crucial for a successful application.

Speak to our team for expert legal guidance on your judicial review application

Scan the QR code for more information on our judicial review services, or visit tannlaw.co.uk/personal-services/immigration/judicial-review/

